Report

Seminar on Importance of Mother Language in Daily Life

Mother Language is a language that a child gets to hear after birth and this language helps to give a definite shape to our feelings and thoughts. Learning in the mother language is also crucial for improving other critical thinking skills, second language learning and literacy skills. The College decided to host a Seminar on 21.02.2022 on the Importance of Mother Language in Daily Life. Every year Pandaveswar College celebrates International Mother Language Day in its own unique style. It is the day on which we pay our homage to everything that is indigenous. Thus, the College along with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the College decided to host a Seminar on Importance of Mother Language in Daily Life on 21.02.2022. Dr. Jamshed Ahmad, Asst. Prof. in Urdu from B.C. College, Asansol was invited to deliver a lecture on the above-mentioned topic. Dr. Ahmad quoted various poets from Hindi and Urdu literature and stressed the need to use mother language as a medium of instructions in Schools and Colleges. There was also a poetry reading session where teachers and students recited poems written in vernacular languages. The program ended with floral tribute to the martyrs of the movement.
